

Become a great peer

training course

100% COMPLETE

Course Curriculum

Upskill (Your Instructor)

Toggle navigation

Course Curriculum

Start next lesson >

Understanding peer review

- An introduction to peer review (1:04)
- Types of peer review
- How reviewing can help you

Do you have what it takes?

- Who qualifies to be a peer reviewer?

- Ethical considerations

- Should you accept the invitation?

Accepted the editor's invitation - what next?

- Understanding what journal editors want
- What constitute major and minor comments
- Forming first impressions with a quick scan

Deep diving into the review

- Making the first read count
- Appraising the Title, Abstract, and Keywords (1:27)
- Reviewing the Introduction or literature review (1:03)
- Evaluating the methodology and ethical soundness (1:41)
- Reporting the Results (0:56)
- Commenting on the Discussion and Conclusion (1:03)
- Quiz - Are you ready to dive into the review?

Decision time!

- Possible recommendations you can make
- Choosing a recommendation
- Summing up your evaluation

Tying it all up

- Structuring a peer review report
- Being a sensitive reviewer (1:49)
- Giving constructive feedback

Concluding the basic course

- The Advanced course
- Test your understanding
- Course feedback